About 2020 vintage

Harvest yield: 4.646 kg/ha. Local weather from October 2019 to September 2020: 15.1° average temperature and 787 mm of rainfall. 2020 was, by far, one of the rainiest vintages over the last years. With a constant threat of potential pests because of the high humidity, and also a higher yield than average. Despite all that ripening took place under good temperature conditions and dry weather. As a result we had a harvest in very good health conditions.
