

AGRÍCOLA SANT JOSEP

Massís del Port 1898 3000 ml

This olive oil comes mainly from ancient olive trees of the Empeltre variety. With this selected and intense olive oil we celebrate those days in 1898 when the mountains of Els Ports, in Terra Alta region, southern Catalonia, fascinated one of the most universal painters of the 20th century, Pablo Ruiz Picasso. By choosing this olive oil, you help us to preserve our ancient olive trees and the cultural heritage of this area.

Product information, harvest 2019:

Category: Extra Virgin Olive Oil

Olives: 85% Empeltre, 15% Arbequina

Production area: Terra Alta, Southern Catalonia

PDO: DO "Oli de Terra Alta"

Harvest and extraction date:

- Empeltre: 8th and 11th November
- Arbequina: 9th and 12th November

% Oil / Olives (kg/kg): Empeltre = 17.8%, Arbequina = 19.3%

Maximum acidity (expressed in oleic acid): 0.1%

Bottled on December 2019

Production: 1,500 cans x 3000 ml

Style / tasting notes (Nov-19): 88% fruity green of medium intensity. Medium bitter and pungent, well balanced. Its aroma is rich in nuances and offers notes of walnut, green almond, artichoke and tomato. | Gastronomy: it is very versatile for seasoning and specially recommended for cooking where will make the difference in and all cooking processes in which olive oil plays an important role | Storage and serving suggestions: olive oil should be kept at about 20° C. Best before date is mentioned on the label of the bottom of the can.

